When should I contact the MAP?

There are times when it can be helpful to speak with a professional about relationship or job issues. Problems with a child, family member or co-worker can affect you. Conflicts with a colleague or supervisor can cause stress. Sometimes you may simply need to speak with someone when you are unsure of how to approach a situation. We can help find relevant solutions.

What can I expect?

When you call, a social worker will talk with you briefly, ask a few questions about your situation and schedule an appointment at a time and date that is convenient for you. When you meet with a social worker, they will continue that dialogue and work with you to help find possible solutions. Services are free and confidential. None of your information is shared with your union.

What do the MAP services cost?

The Association of Theatrical Press Agents and Managers has contracted with the Entertainment Community Fund to provide these services at no additional cost to you.
